Along the Fraser Valley

Letter from Hope

By ED SUMIDA

Nestled beside the muddy Fraser and towering mountains is the beautiful town of Hope, home to a number of Japanese Canadians. Here, in a friendly small-town atmosphere, the JCs have found a permanent place as an integral part of the community.

Hope first came to the attention of Japanese Canadians with the outbreak of World War II. In the following year, 1942, the evacuation camp at Tashme, 14 miles away, was opened. Separated by only a 100 miles from Vancouver, Hope subsequently became a jumping-off spot for evacuees. For this reason, many ex-Tashme-ites may remember Hope as a whistle-stop, a point of departure for relocation. Since then, however, the former village of a few inhabitants has undergone tremendous growth. A recent brief survey by the writer reveals the following progress during the past 14 years:

Most striking evidence of expansion is the physical features: the neon-glittered modern business section sprawling over numerous blocks; the mushrooming of a residential district. Bushes and fields have been transformed into lots, parks, parking spaces. Dilapidated farmhouses and antiquated shops have been torn down, constructed into modern schools, theatre, stores, motels, houses. On the outskirts of town are even more scatterings of houses, autocourts, and gas stations.

Centrally located, Hope has many outlets. Once dusty roads have been black-topped throughout the town to adjoining highways, the Fraser Canyon and the Hope-Princeton. (Incidentally, the latter was worked by Japanese road gangs during the war.) Hope is further serviced by railways—the CNR, CPR and KVR. On the Fraser, the tug of River Towing plies the length of the river. Hope also boasts a private airfield, run by local businessmen.

JCs IN LUMBER MILLS

Hope, originally a farming district, is now engaged primarily in the lumber industry. It is the location of several logging and sawmill companies. The largest of these, the Princeton Trail Sawmill, employs 40 Japanese at the peak employment season. Another mill—probably the largest Japanese-operated mill in B.C.—stands at Trite's Ranch (old site of Tashme.) Approximately 35 JCs are on the payroll of Mr. K. Kamimura, president of Allison Pass Sawmills.

Elsewhere, sprinklings of Japanese are hired by the railways for "sections" dotted along the track. There are also a few girls working as clerks in town.

In different ways, Japanese Canadians have penetrated into business ventures. Among them is Mr. I. Kariatsumari, owner of Home Laundry. Dr. Keizo Hayashi, chiropractor, does a flourishing business with clientele from all parts of the Valley. A Nisei, Koichi Kaminishi, caters to the tourist trade with his modern Lynn-Al Motel.

"We've only been here a few years but we're doing well," says Mr. Kaminishi. "The motel business, like others, has to be built up to a good reputation." And he adds emphatically: "Actually, being a Japanese counts very little in business."

110 JAPANESE IN HOPE

Perhaps the most significant growth in Hope is that of the population—official estimate at 2500. Out of that number, there are 110 including 28 families of Japanese descent—most of them homeowners. Counting those in the outlying districts, together with transient workers in summer, the total of JCs swells considerably.

The earliest of Japanese arrivals were relocees from Tashme working in the sawmill at 12 mile point. After the lifting of all restrictions against the Japanese Canadians on April 1, 1949, families converged to Hope, the new location of the present P.T. Sawmill. One of the first to settle,

Enterprising and Adaptable People Desired for Canadian Immigration

In seeking immigrants, Canada is concerned mainly whether a man has the guts and adaptability to become a good enterprising Canadian, said The Financial Post editorially this week. We're looking for people who seek opportunity and not merely security, the business newspaper said.

The Post applauded the new policy of the immigration department which has been necessitated by the decline in immigration and the increasing number of jobs available. Ottawa has decided to go after promising people, and not determining eligibility for entry solely on occupation, as has been the policy of the past three years. The newspaper said:

"The present change in policy is in the right direction. We hope Ottawa sticks to it. Certainly it should adopt a sound, generous policy and stick to it instead of fidgeting around and trying to adapt policy to the presumed tides of popular sentiment."

OTTAWA MAKES THREE POLICY CHANGES TO FILL 200,000 POTENTIAL OPENINGS

OTTAWA.—The Immigration Department is working hard to increase the flow of immigrants in 1956 above the 110,000 who arrived in 1955.

As the increasing need for immigrant workers became more apparent in the fall of last year, the Government took three major steps toward increasing the flow:

1. The restrictive device of confining immigration from particular countries to particular occupations has been thrown out. Immigration officers overseas have been allowed to go back to the system which applied during the big immigration years up to 1952.

2. Another 1952 restriction has been abandoned: the rule that new immigrant workers would not be admitted between the end of September and the spring.

3. In December the Government restored the 1951 scheme of assisted passages for any and every immigrant. (Since 1952 assisted passages had been restricted to a few badly-needed occupations.)

Many employers have reverted to the 1951-52 eagerness to get suitable immigrants to solve their labor problems. The metal mining association is actively looking for miners from Britain and Europe and encouraging them to bring their families.

The sugar-beet industry is sending people overseas to try to find suitable farm-workers for growing beet.

The railways want 800 track-workers. The construction industry wants architects, engineers and many craftsmen. The electronic industry wants skilled fitters and repairmen.

More than 200,000 potential openings have been found by the Immigration Department's settlement branch. Most of these are either with small businesses short of skilled help which never think of asking for immigrant labor, or in growing communities where one-man service businesses are badly needed—such as barbers or shoe-repairers or launderers or blacksmiths.

Unemployment among last year's new immigrants appears to be almost nonexistent.

The problem is still to find enough people of the desired type who want to throw up everything for a new start in Canada.

Very full employment continues in the countries in which Canada is most interested.

Scholarship Winner Follows 4 Brothers

A $100 scholarship award for general proficiency was presented last week to Hiroshi Shimizu, 23, of Grandview Ave., second year student in metallurgy at the University of Toronto. Presentation was made at the monthly meeting of the Ontario chapter, American Society for Metals.

A native of Victoria, B.C., Hiroshi has spent most of his life in Japan. After returning to Canada only four years ago, he studied for two terms at Jarvis Collegiate Institute before entering University of Toronto.

Four of Hiroshi's brothers are graduates of Varsity: Kunio, B.A. in math and physics; Stum, M.A. in biochemistry; Yawn, B.A. in chemical engineering; and Osamu, B.A. in general arts. Eldest brother Kunio is also graduate of UBC.

Sansei to Appear On Lassie TV Program

LOS ANGELES.—Warren Nagata, 12-year old Sansei, makes his acting debut in a story about the son of a Japanese farmer who visits an American farm, during the CBS television program "Lassie."

Warren plays Haru Yamaguchi, a young farmer from Japan who visits the Miller family during the latest episode of the award-winning "Lassie" series on Sunday, Feb. 12. (On channel 4 for Toronto district viewers.)

The script of "The Visitor" called for a Japanese boy of that age who had the shy quality needed and yet could act with a certain amount of authority. The Lassie office interviewed every available Oriental but without too much luck.

Finally, a friend told a friend, who told another friend, that there was a part open. Warren Nagata's mother heard about it, and although her son had never acted before, he was brought in for a reading.

Warren has decided that he will keep on the acting field and because of his success in "Lassie," producers are already seeking him out for other parts, even though the film has not yet been shown.

SOVIET MOST DISLIKED

MATSUYAMA, Japan. — The Soviet Union outranked the United States two to one as the "most disliked nation" in a poll of grammar and junior high school pupils. The U.S. was ranked second "most liked" nation, behind Switzerland, but ahead of Japan itself.

Divorce Sought By Shirley Yamaguchi, Sculptor Isamu Noguchi

TOKYO.—Movie actress Yoshiko Shirley Yamaguchi has announced plans to divorce her husband, sculptor Isamu Noguchi. Miss Yamaguchi explained:

"My husband and I have discussed divorce now for several years .... our love has vanished during the several years we have been constantly apart. The actress said she plans to continue her film career and emphasized there is no other man involved.

The couple were married in 1951 in Tokyo.

Son of the internationally noted poet Yone Noguchi, the Los Angeles-born sculptor is the designer of the famed Hiroshima Peace Bridges and has worked on other structures, largely in the United States.

Miss Yamaguchi described her husband as a "great artist" and said a continuation of their marriage "would stand in the way of his work."

LETTER FROM HOPE...

(C[illegible]

Mrs. [illegible] recalled [illegible] "Hope people were used to seeing Japanese first, because of Tashme [illegible] on our occasional trips to town. But they were ignorant of Japanese and treated us with indifference or curiosity. When we moved down, there were agitations against us by a few, in rare instances even downright insults. Fortunately, through the years, the continuous rubbing of shoulders has benefited everybody. Situations have changed completely now."

Passing years have seen a gradual exchange in the population, with two-thirds of the original members moving away. Later influxes are from points both within and without the province: Greenwood, Lillooet, Picture Butte.

WELL INTEGRATED

In the social sphere, the Jp's are making progress; an increasing leaning of the Niseis toward active communal participation is shown. Thus far, two, T. Nakaida, K. Kaminishi, are members of the Lions club. Another, a former principal of Tashme Elementary, is a Hope Women's Community Club member.

"All English speaking Japanese should take part in organizations and communal affairs," urges Mrs. Z. Inouye. "There are [illegible] [illegible] direction the [illegible]

On a broader level, the [illegible] community still holds [illegible] social activities. One of these is the periodic showing of Japanese movies by travelling projectionists. Another one popular with the Issei [illegible] heralding of New Year's in the traditional Japanese style.

In sports, the Nisei are noted for their prowess. Summertime sees the men at home on the grounds, fielding for the local team. In winter the switch is to bowling. Especially active in leagues at this time are the entries under B. Uyesugi and K. Kaminishi. So, too, are others in mixed groups. There is some indication of interests in forming a basketball team in the near future.

Today, the Japanese in Hope are optimistic about their prospects. With Hope on the verge of an even greater expansion, there is no keeping back of the Niseis from taking part in it, except their own reluctance. Their feeling in general is summarized by the elderly Issei gentleman who spoke reflectively: "Hope is a wonderful place to live in ... the scenery, the houses and the people. I would be contented to live my life out happily here."

Blind Worker Proves Worthwhile Artisan

VANCOUVER.—George Kosaka, 46-year old employee of an electrical firm, has one of the most exacting jobs in the shop. He is an armature winder, hand winding coils of fine wire around the central armature core in dozens of electric motors every day.

Yet he is almost totally blind.

Mr. Kosaka, who lives at 3576 Oxford with his wife and two children, has had less than three-quarter vision since he was injured in a garage [illegible] years ago.

For one and a half years he has been employed with Ekolite Ltd., 363 East Hastings, where his work [illegible] works from a wheel chair. [illegible] employees in this shop suffer from one type of handicap or another.

Mr. Kosaka is one of many persons with partial vision or totally blind, who have found employment through the job placement service of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

Steve Lake, manager of the CNIB job placement service, 1101 West Broadway, said there are about 60 blind people employed in a variety of jobs in B.C. at present, 38 in Vancouver.

"But there is not enough suitable employment available for the capable blind," he said. "Right now I have in excess [illegible] able persons waiting for opportunities."

He said that the biggest problem he faces in finding jobs for his clients was overcoming the natural reticence of employers who fear inadequacy in handicapped employees.

Ask Canadian Students to Contribute Writing, Art

Primary to junior high school pupils and students are asked to contribute writings and drawings reflecting the daily Canadian scene for the North American volume of a 15-volume series "Children of the World".

Purpose of the series is to serve as "a link of friendship and understanding between Japan and the [illegible] countries of the world." Deadline for submissions has been extended to [illegible] February, in the absence of sufficient contributions for the North American volume (Alaska, Canada, Greenland and U.S.A.).

Submissions should be mailed to "The Children of the World", Heibonsha, No. 4, Yonbancho, Chiyodaku, Tokyo, Japan. Heibonsha Limited specializes in publishing educational encyclopedias, dictionaries and other reference books.

On the type of material desired, the publishers say:

"If the children would catch and write in concrete form the incidents that happened around them, for instance about their games, [illegible] families, [illegible] [illegible], we believe that we shall be able to learn very clearly how the people work and how the children are striving. By [illegible] these writings Japanese [illegible] [illegible] of the [illegible] [illegible] of the world."

[illegible] U.S. far outnumber [illegible] Canadian material available to date.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

Niseis Selfish

Editor: Niseis have taken [illegible] advantage of their rights as Canadians, but have forgotten their responsibilities which [illegible] [illegible]. For certain, our [illegible] co-operative community on Japanese [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] the type of [illegible] [illegible].

Are Niseis blind to [illegible] happening? Are we to stay in the same old rut? All I can see is that we're getting ourselves in the same predicament as the Jews.

To disband our social organizations completely is impossible. But through proper leadership every effort should be made [illegible] complete assimilation with other Canadians.

Niseis today are only interested in themselves, and not in the outside community in which we live. In all our efforts we cater to our own race, which I think is discrimination from any point of view.

Editor: You may be interested to know that Japanese boys and girls are very eager for knowledge of peoples of other lands. Not the kind of knowledge that one finds in the geography and history books, but the little thing that interest young people everywhere.

紫煙 ケンゾー

古傷に觸れる

△シー・ビー・シーのラヂオ放送プログラムは民間放送のそれよりも、よほど高尚だし良心的なものであるが、その反面、シー・ビー・シーが官營であるという立場から、番組の內容にある種の拘束をうけるのである。とくに、ことに少數民族に關するスクリップには必要以上に當局は神經を尖らせていることは事實だ。

△カナダで比較的に自由な活動ができることを期待して米國から新進作家の青年が、日系カナダ人の再定住をテーマとするストーリーを書くことになり、いきおい沿岸立退きのことに觸れなければならなかつたのは當然である。このストーリーを映畫化してシー・ビー・シーがテレヴイ放送するプランが進められていたのである。

△このシー・ビー・シーの企畫と日系人の立退きがストーリーの中に加えられることを知ったオタワ政府の一大臣は「自由黨政府の不利になるような宣傳映畫となつては困る。一体、どんな物語りにするのか、よく氣をつけよ」とドエライ權幕でこのプラン責任者にお目玉を喰わせた。

△その結果、体のよい「技術上の困難」のため日系人に關する映畫作成は無期延期とすることになった。これで二度、シー・ビー・シーは日系人のストーリー紹介を中絶したことになる。そしてオタワ筋からのインターファレンス(妨害)はスクリップ・ライターを大いに落膽させているのである。

アデナウアー首相

菅　良（元ボン駐在二等書記官）

ドイツ連邦共和國（西ドイツ）の首相コンラッド・アデナウアーは一八七六年一月五日ケルン市に生れたちょうど滿八十歳になるわけだ。チャーチル引退の後現在第一線に立って世界を動かしている政治家の中では最年長者ということになる。

だが、實際に會って見ると、どう見てもそんな高齢者とは思えない。八つ年下のホイス大統領よりは遙かに若く見える。皮膚の色つや[illegible]

[illegible]

相談相手になっている醫者が、首相の身体諸機關の機能はすべてまだ六十才そこそこの若さを保っていると語っていたが、會ってもまことにその通りだという感を深くした。

アデナウアー首相の經歷にはこれといって華々しいところがない。とくに一九三三年にヒトラアが天下をとると、一切の職を退き、それから終戰まで故郷で長い隱忍の生活を續けていたナチス政權には終始非協力であったため、終戰近くはナチスの壓迫をさけてケルン市から五、六十キロ、ライン川をさかのぼった山中の古い修道院に一年近く身[illegible]

[illegible]キリスト教民主同盟（CDU）を創[illegible]り上げた。そして一九四八年には、政府の前身である諮問議會の議長となり、ついで一九四九年九月初めて統一された西ドイツ政府ができると共にその首相となり、その後六年あまり微動だにもせずその地位を保って居るところで、アデナウアー首相が、戰後すい星の如く西ドイツの政界に現われ、さらに世界政治の中央舞臺にその光芒を放つようになったのは、そもそもいかなる力によるものであろうが、外部的要因を別にすれば、私はそれをこの人物に内在する不動の信念と、それを實行に移す不屈の闘志に歸したい。これはいささか月並みな表現であるが直接にこの人に接してみると、この二つのものがその身体から放射されるように[illegible]が破[illegible]。それ[illegible]倒的[illegible]を與え[illegible]。西ドイツが[illegible]主權を回復した例のパリ條約が議會で審議された時、十數時間息つく暇もない野黨の攻撃に或いは演壇から或いは自席から激しく應酬し、深夜に至って遂に政敵を壓服した時の姿は、單に政治家としてでなく、一個の人間としてもまことに見事なものであった。個人的には敬けんなカトリック信者として謹嚴そのものであるが、決して冷い感じではない。餘りとげのない皮肉で人をからかうのが大好きで、それがつぼにはまった時には、さも嬉しそうに大笑する。いくら元氣とはいっても八十の高齢だから、近年ボツボツ後繼者の噂も出ているが、ドイツ人の壓倒的多數が、この人が一日でも長く現在の地位に止まってくれることを願っているのは事實だろう。夫人はすでになく、他に嫁した娘さん達が交替で身の廻りの世話をしている。日曜の教會勤めの外はもっぱら庭いじり、中でもバラ造りがお[illegible]得意である。

カラーデー氏の横顔（二）

ビーシー　上山生

カムループスの守護神、マウントボール、ピーターの山々の雪が消えて、世は冬の衣を脱ぎすて、人々は青々の四邊を眺め、生々として活動に入る。

或る夏の、日曜の午後だった。並木の緑がそよそよと涼風を浴びている。右側にこれを見て、左側に四十年の歴史ある小學校から外にもれてくる讃歌の一節に耳を傾けた。それは殺那から永遠につづく人生に光りの暗示を與えんとする如く哀切で、そして滋味を持つた響であった。

歌の主はカムループス市カナバリ・テンプル教會を主宰するカラーデ牧師とその夫人であった。彼は暑くても寒くても、凍りつく厳寒の朝でも、年中毎朝七時十五分から十五分間、シー・エフ・ジェー・シー放送局から「祈り」と「説教」のラジオ放送をする。彼の讃美歌は彼の說敎に勝るとも劣らぬ獨特のものである。

筆者の知る「テト」さんは一家を持ち、一子に恵まれて圓滿な家庭を悦んでいたが、花に嵐のたとえ、彼は職場で思わぬ大負傷をした。片手なしの片輪にならなかったのが不幸中の幸で自分の片輪に近い姿をながめ、妻子の生活や一家の將來を想い出しては病院で一人苦惱しん吟する時、カラーデ牧師の慰問により、感謝さ、強く生き抜かねばならぬと悟ったとテトさんが告白したことがある。

カラーデ牧師夫妻は一切をあげて神に奉仕し、說敎に或はタイムを分けて傳道に出かけるなど、その熱誠の證であろうところの日曜禮拜や日曜學校の如きは盛んなものである。これは夫妻の熱心と、神に信奉する崇高な精神的行爲の現われとみることができる。

野黨の反對に ハウ大臣怒る

小麥問題

【オタワ發】小麥過剩と貸付きが芳ばしくないことによる不滿をハウ通產相に昨夏訴えた平原州農者の代表團の要請を考慮した結果、ハウ通產相は臨時的善處措置として賣れずに貯藏されている新收穫の小麥を擔保に銀行から一農家宛千五百弗（利子五パーセント）の融通をはかり、冬を過ごさせることとし、すでに實施されていのだが今週の議會でハウ大臣はこれの法案化を求めたところ、俄然、野黨側から猛烈な反對演說をあびせられ、遂にハウ大臣は怒號し「反對黨は法案審議を越えて、文字通り妨害のみの下劣さだ。この法案を通過させないというハラなら通過するまで議會を閉じないつもりだ」とカンカンになつて答辯、シーシーエフ黨のアルフレッド・シー・エッス議員（レジャイナ選出）はハウ大臣の答辯に對し「斷じて許すべからざる暴言だ」と反バクしている。反對黨側の主張する點は、小麥の販賣を一切任されているオタワ政府直屬の小麥局が今日の小麥の不滿な狀態の責任を持っているのに生產者が小麥供出に對する支拂をうける權利のあるにも拘らず、銀行から利子をつけて借りさせるというのは不都合極まるというのである。そこでハウ大臣は「この法案に反對か否か、イエスかノーと答えればよいのだ」と野黨に迫っているのである。

原水爆禁止案

【東京時事通信】社會黨は自民黨側から示された原水爆實驗禁止要望決議案の條文について協議した結果これを承認した。よって九日の本會議に上程されることになっている。

ビーツ働き移民

適當者を廣く海外に求む

【オタワ發】歐州各國の景氣回復にともなつて同地域からの移民がめっきり減少したことが、一九五五年度のカナダへの移民がやつと十一万に達したことによつて明らかとなつた。そこで移民當局としては、今年度は最低十五万を自標に大わらわとなつている。●カナダでは各產業とも人的不足を告げ、業界では歐州に適當な移民を物色させているというが、とくに、シュガー・ビート產業界ではビート栽培に適する農業移民をさがし求めるため、わざわざ海外に人を送っているとのことである。オタワ移民省では冬季移民許可ワクを擴大する一方、技術的有資格者のみの移民を選擇していた方針をも緩和し、有望とみなされる人々という格き[illegible]通れば、それぞれの職業とか技術は第二義として移民を歡迎することに政策を變わつつある。

日本製オモチャ

今年一割上昇の輸出豫想さる

【東京時事通信】玩具の輸出は順調で、昨年は通產省輸出會議決定の三千六百餘万弗に對して、五千七百六万三千弗を示す大巾な伸張を示したが、業界では本年はこれよりさらに一〇パーセント程度の增加が期待されるとみている。近く輸出會議でもこの月標額が決まるが、これも大体業界の見通しと一致した計畫であるとみられる。品種別では米國の壓倒的需要の躍進で金屬玩具が昨年より一〇パーセントに當る、二千八百万弗が見込まれてい[illegible]玩具輸出の首位を示し、その他ではゴム玩具が同樣一〇パーセント增の三百三十万弗が見込まれているが、米諸州、東南アジアなどでイタリア香港品などと競爭しているので樂觀視されない狀況さもいわれる。また花火は六十万弗と昨年より十五万弗增加が見込まれて、船積事情も昨年から日本船も積込むようになつたのでさらに躍進するものとみられる。セルロイド玩具は硬質ビニール品に若干おされ氣味を示して昨年、一昨年と百九十四、五万弗であつたが本年は二百十一万弗が見込まれ、鐵製玩具および木製玩具は昨年よりもそれぞれ一〇パーセント增の百八十万弗、布はく製玩具は十万弗增の九十五万弗程度は達成できるものと見込まれてる

ポリオ 豫防注射

【オタワ發】マーチン保健相は九日の下院において、七ページにおよぶ「一九五五年のサーク・小兒マヒ豫防注射の成績」に關する報告を行つたが、それによつて昨年カナダ兒童五十八万九千人にサーク注射を施した結果、その注射有効率は八十五パーセントを示したことが明らかとなつたので、カナダ政府では今年更に七月一日までに二百万の兒童に注射を與えるプランである。なお昨年、注射をうけた兒童は春までに最後の注射をうけることになり、これがすめばその兒童は長年の惱みポリオにかかる心配はなくなるという。

. . . The program says that Jazz is the only native American art form. As a relatively new jazz afficionado, I can't say too much about the stuff (to those who call it a bunch of noise) except that you have to listen to it to appreciate it; just as you have to listen to classics to appreciate. So for those who didn't notice, last Wednesday night the Birdland Stars of '56 flew into old Massey Hall, gave two performances, and blew out the same eve. . . . The lineup included Sarah Vaughan, Count Basie, Al Hibbler, Lester Young, Johnny "Guitar" Smith, Bud Powell, Joe Williams and the East-West Jazz Septet.

Having chosen to take in the second performance, we had to wait until 10 p.m. in the crowded, drizzly streets for the first mob to come out. It was MCeed by little Peewee (a redundancy, I know) whose introductions were lost in the applause, and up in the heights we were not privileged to receive a program of the evening's performance. Anyhoo, the Count played his hit (One more once!) April in Paris, and his drummerboy Sonny Payne gave a sparkling display of drumming. . . . Li'l Roy Haines of the septet soloed with his set, too (the most exciting spots of the eve, I thought—I guess I'm partial to drums). . . . Al Hibbler sang his money-making Unchained Melody. At times his voice dropped to a dangerous low, causing fans to gasp, but he always got back up to his final note. Bud Powell (looking shaky from his illness I s'pose, but playing confidently) pounded out his weird chords, but the piano sounded a bit muted from where I sat. . . . The great Lester and his tenor sax dashed on and off so fast that he hardly had time to get warmed up. C[illegible]'s singer Joe Williams really swung it with I Got a Girl (Well, oh-well[illegible]) moving the gallery to clapping in time, just like the people beat their feet in the Mississippi mud. . . . Sarah topped off the evening, singing divinely as ever.

. . . And after two solid hours of jazz, all I could hear running through the old [illegible] was Mel Torme's Bernie's Tune, with snatches of Jackie Cain's Spring Can Really Hang You Up the Most. . . .

So, Mr. M., how about writing something better on this art form?

Glenn Miller Nite came and went last Saturday night. . . . The UNF Hall is just too small for this annual event. During the course of the evening, the [illegible] Nisei Student Club bursary was presented to Sam Yoshida, who unfortunately did not venture beyond the curtains to receive his loot. Only past pres. Toguri was seen handing the scholarship through the curtain. Later, when told about this, Sammy said, "Good! Now nobody can waylay me on the way home." Entertainment (by Mayumi Yamasaki and Sam Misumi it says on the ticket) included the first Nisei girls' harmony quartet that I've seen, singing Blue Moon (with a few odd notes), a silhouetted takeoff on The Medic, and some wonderful alto sax-work by Nobby Kubota, all emceed by George (Hiberace) Takahashi. . . .

Last night (while this issue is sitting in the post office), was the TYBS Valentine Dance and I bet that's going to be crowded! A few of the beauties vying for the Miss Valentine crown appeared in the Star. . . . Sally Akada and Jane Edamura had switched names, June Shikatani and Doreen Tohana came through with misspellings—only Marianne Inouye [illegible].

Mustangs Take Lead Over Top Team 77-67 In Church Semi-Final

Mustangs took a 10-point edge into the second game of the two-game total point semi-finals against Kingsway Lambton Friday. The Nisei cagers came back from a 38-33 half-time deficit to beat the schedule leaders 77-67 in the opener Tuesday.

In a move to accelerate the church intermediate B windup, league officials started the play-off ball rolling this week. Mustangs played off for second and third place Monday with North Parkdale, losing 58-49 despite a 22-16 halftime lead. This loss meant the Nisei would square off with first-place Kingsway-Lambton in one semi-final.

After displaying a strong defensive in the first half Monday, Mustang guards let up in the second portion of the game and North Parkdale took advantage with a fast break attack to win. Nisei scorers: Hirano 13, Kameoka 7, Tanaka 10, Ken Miyasaki 7, Roy Miyasaki 6, George Shiozaki 2, Ike Murase 2.

Tuesday's game was something of an upset in that Mustangs had failed to beat the league-leaders all season. Deciding factor in the game was Niseis' set shot accuracy, and Kingsway-Lambton's loose checking. Niseis were really hot on long shots and the losers failed to make use of their height advantage. Mustang scorers:

Hirano 30, Roy Miyasaki 11, Ken Miyasaki 10, Kameoka 10, Koyata 7, Roy Kurita 5, Dick Tanaka 4. Paul Hirano and Yuki Kameoka played very well, and Sam Koyata came up with one of his top performances.

If Mustangs were able to hold off the powerful Kingsway-Lambton squad last night, they'll advance into league finals next week.

And tomorrow, Mustangs will be matched with Andy's A.C. at 3:30 at the UNF gym in Bathurst-College league action.

Stellite Hoopsters Drop Opener 34-19

VANCOUVER.—Maria Stella cagers started off on an unsuccessful note as the CYO basketball league got under way at Notre Dame gym Feb. 1. Lack of practice and height disadvantage told the story as Stellites went under 34-19 at hands of Sacred Hearts. Nisei scorers: Johnny Nakata 9, Mike Matsuba 7, Danny Okano 1, Mammy Yabe 1, Mich Tanaka 1.

Battle for the basement was slated Thursday Feb. 9, between Maria Stella and Lady of Sorrows. West Van sharpshooter Kenny Homma was expected to make his first appearance.

★ Sports Review

By EDDIE HISAKI

MITZ NOZAKI of Vancouver writes. . . .

"We are holding the first of what is hoped to be an annual British Columbia Nisei Five Pin tournament, under the auspices of the local JCCA on March 30th and 31st at Commodore Recreations Centre, 838 Granville St."

Because of the divergence of Nisei keglers in the province, the tourney heads have adopted a handicap system for all events, with the exception of the "All Star" matches.

The Japanese Consul trophy with five individual trophies plus cash awards, is up for grabs in the All Star men's team roll-off. The mixed team events winners will be rewarded with the Steveston Jewellers trophy as well as statuettes to each member of the team. Ladies' and men's doubles leaders will also win individual trophies. Uneeda Cleaners and Mikado trophies will go to the ladies' and men's singles champions, respectively, determined on the average of the first six games participated in by each contestant. Last but not least, a raffle to help defray expenses will be drawn at the Windup Dance, preceded by a banquet on the 31st. Prizes have been donated by Vancouver merchants.

This opening tourney is led by Kaye Inouye, with Tad Ikeda and Peggy Okabori looking after the social end of things. Yosh Inouye is treasurer, while Dave Matsuba and Jim Nishimura are in charge of trophies. Raffle prizes are handled by Manio Madokoro, and Mitz Nozaki and Dave Matsuba are official statisticians.

Those interested in further information should write Mitz Nozaki, c/o Commodore Recreations, 838 Granville St., Vancouver.

FOLLOWERS of the Double S Tile of the East Toronto hockey league were finally rewarded last Sunday when Flyers ended a three-month winless drought with a 6-5 decision. Whether it was the Law of Averages finally catching up or the Power of Prayers that helped the Niseis down the River Snack Bar team will probably never be determined. It seems an anonymous Nisei rooter composed a poem in a religious vein, entitled "An Athlete's Prayer", and sent it along to Mas Nakao a week ago.

NAMES IN SPORTS: Mike Sakura, 16-year old Toronto shuttler, teamed with Chris Lawson in a junior tournament in Niagara Falls scheduled for the latter part of this week. A member of the Metro Nisei club, Mike is in his rookie season of serious badminton competition and has come a long way since last fall. Recently he was eliminated in finals of the Strathgowan tournament junior singles by partner Chris. . . . Don Ito plays his hockey for Cobourg juveniles of the Lakeshore league. . . .

LADIES' CORNER: Mrs. Helen Watanabe became the first Nisei to win a city tennis championship in Los Angeles, copping singles title in City Flight finals. . . . Nancy Ito, Denver's all-American athlete, was recently reinstated to amateur status by the American Softball Association, after several seasons in pro ranks. . . . Kazumi Yamada of Kamloops hoops 'em for her high school Junior Jets basketball team.
